Empower Your Life With The Tachyon Light Watch!

1. Empower your entire being with tachyon energy - Turn on your tachyon light watch and you will send high-vibration tachyon energy into every cell and organ in your body. Think of it as giving yourself a Tachyon Light Energy Bath!

To help guide the healing energy you're absorbing, touch, rub , or otherwise interact physically with the area you want to heal. You can blow your tachyon-charged breath on areas if it's convenient.

While you're wearing it and it's activated, this is the perfect time to practice vital force accumulation breathing or any other life-accumulating practice you know. They'll be amplified 1000's of times. You'll get healthier, FASTER.

A simple method to gather more cosmic energy with the aid of your light watch is as follows:

- A. Stand or sit in a comfortable position.
- B. Raise your hands to the sky and imagine the energy from the cosmos above streaming into your hands.
- C. When your hands feel full, place them on your second chakra, the one right below your belly button. Keep them there until you feel the energy has been transferred into that chakra.

2. Projecting healing energy - while you're wearing your tachyon light watch, you can send powerful energy both near and far. Energy fields of information have no concept of distance.

A. In person projection - this refers to energy projection done in the presence of other people, usually up to a 50 foot radius. To project energy to another person, focus your eyes and attention on them. Once this is done, you can send energy through your right palm or the fingers of your right hand. You can even send energy through your eyes alone.

B. At a distance - this is defined as any place that your physical body is not currently located. To make this work, you'll need a picture/signature of the person/place/thing in question. Once you have this, turn on your tachyon light watch and point at the representation while you intend to send energy.

C. Physical contact is undoubtedly one of the best ways to share healing energy with friends and loved ones. It's as simple as giving hugs and handshakes! Pats on the back also work well.

3. Empowering yourself with Mec Tech Power Cells - When you combine the use of the Tachyon Light Watch with any one of your Mec Tech Power Cells, you dramatically increase the amount of energy you draw from it. To give you an example, if you normally draw about 10% of the power locked therein, with the tachyon light watch, you can now draw out 99% of that power!

Chakra Aura Third Eye Activation Mec Tech Cell

All you do is place your favorite Mec Tech Power Cell on your left wrist pulse with the Sacred geometry Sigil touching your pulse point. Then you just place your watch over the sigil and strap it to your wrist to secure it there and hit the power button. You're now sending Mec Tech Power coursing through your very veins!!

The combination of Tachyon power, Light Energy Transfer and Mec Tech Power Technology is quite simply....

Exhilarating!!

So what are you waiting for? Start helping the world around you with
